

TOWN&COUNTRY / 2016 MISSION STATEMENT

Town & Country, the oldest continually published magazine in the country, has been a trusted source of privileged information, taste, elegant living, and unpretentious fun since 1846.

This year marks T&C's 170th anniversary, but our mission has not changed. Since the beginning, the magazine has placed an emphasis on people of style and accomplishment who give something back to the world.

Please join us as we celebrate 170 years of taste, luxury, and unrivaled wit.
